

Employer	Manchester Airports Group
Site	East Midlands International Airport Limited
Position	Fire Service - Senior Airport Fire Officer
Salary	£49,000.00Circa
Sector	Fire Service
Area	East Midlands Airport

Ref No	MANC-353
Display From	14/07/2010
Display To	25/07/2010
No of positions	1
Confidential	No

Contact	Steve Holmes
Telephone	01614898880

Email	steven.holmes@manairport.co.uk
Fax	01614893812

URL
------------	--

Position Description	To manage the RFFS at EMA to ensure compliance with mandatory requirements and provide an effective response to all aviation related incidents.
-----------------------------	---

Required Experience	Applicants must poses relevant managerial experience. They must be able to present themselves in a confident, professional and credible manner, and be capable of delivering clear, concise unambiguous instructions. They must have the ability to lead a team, remaining focused at all times with the ability to make quick, clear rational decisions, and implement accordingly. Candidates should be able to obtain and utilise relevant information by listening, questioning and conveying ideas, facts or opinions in a clear and understandable manner as well as possessing excellent written skills. Candidates at Qualified Station Manager or above is preferred, but not essential. Must hold a Health and safety qualification at a minimum IOSH level.
----------------------------	--

Salary And Benefits	Full Time, Permanent Role working 42 Hours per week, Salary £49,000 per annum. Open to all MAG employees only. Closing date for applications – Saturday 24th July 2010
----------------------------	--

Employer Description	The Manchester Airports Group (MAG) is the UK's largest British-owned airport operator. Our four airports - Manchester, East Midlands, Humberside and Bournemouth - currently serve a total of over 29 million passengers every year. The Group also runs thriving businesses in property management, car parking, airport security, fire fighting, engineering and motor transport. MAG is publicly owned by the ten local authorities of Greater Manchester and is privately managed on their behalf.
-----------------------------	---